

Allied Professional of The Year (APY) Award NOMINATION FORM

The Pittsburgh Planned Giving Council (PPGC) seeks nominations of tri-state area attorneys, stock brokers, insurance and real estate professionals, certified public accountants and certified financial planners deserving of recognition for their efforts to promote philanthropy professionally and through personal example. A PPGC committee evaluates nominees and selects one person for recognition at a PPGC luncheon program. The nomination process is open year-round and nominees will be carried forward if not selected.
